PART FOUR: Certifying and submitting your documents

When you need to provide copies of documents, you must get them certified. This proves they are true copies of the original.

To certify documents, take both the original documents and a photocopy to someone authorised to certify the copies. This includes legal practitioners, pharmacists, teachers, medical practitioners and Justices of the Peace.

For a full list of authorised certifiers, see justice.vic.gov.au/certifiedcopies.

You can also take your original document to a Justice Service Centre for certification.

For locations, visit justice.vic.gov.au/service-locations.

If you are interstate, any authorised witness or Justice of the Peace can certify documents.

You must mail current and certified copies of each identity document.

- The Registry only accepts current (not expired) and certified copies of documents by mail.
- The Registry does not accept photocopies of identity documents that are expired, uncertified or certified incorrectly.
- Failure to correctly submit your proof of identity documents will delay your application.

Applying from outside Australia?

If you live outside Australia, you can provide overseas equivalents to Australian identity documents, such as a foreign driver licence.

You may have photocopies of your identity documents certified by an Australian consulate or embassy official, a Notary Public or a local member of police.

Translated Documents

When your documents are not in English, you must also attach a certified translation.

The translator must be accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters.

If you are unable to meet these requirements, please contact the Registry via bdm.vic.gov.au.

(SEE BACK)

For the purpose of receiving notices and other particulars required by law respecting births and deaths, the Office of the Government Statist will be open every day, except Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays at 295 Queen Street, Melbourne, 3000, Office Hours: 9.30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Failure to Register a Birth deprives the child of documentary evidence to prove age and Parentage.

NOTE.—Registration can be effected by post and persons failing to Register are liable to a penalty of $20 for neglect. Registrations are made by the Government Statist free of charge if registered within 60 days of date of birth.

Acknowledgment that registration has been completed will be forwarded in the form of an "Extract" from the registration entry.

If registered after 60 days but under 12 months, a fee of $2 is payable; over 12 months but under 7 years $6; over 7 years $10.

Section 25 of the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act 1959 reads:—

"Where the birth of any illegitimate child is registered on the information of the father of such child, and the father being the informant desires to be registered as the father of such child, the father shall be so registered and then for all purposes the surname of such child shall be deemed and taken to be the same as the surname of the father."

This means that, to enable the birth to be registered in the father's name, information for purposes of registration must be furnished on the appropriate form (Tenth Schedule) before the expiration of 60 days from the date of birth. The appropriate form is obtainable from the Government Statist or a Collecting Agent.

If that form is not received within the above period, the birth will be registered in the mother's surname.

Message from the Author : FFF ; { Fellow Freedom Fighters }

Fellow Freedom Fighters is a voluntary group providing all Australians with the knowledge required to UP HOLD YOUR RIGHTS !!!

FFF have decided to make our information FREE to all Australians !!!

FFF is well aware of our countries Economic position , and understand some less fortunate can not afford anything apart from basics , so thats the number one reason for making our information FREE !!!

The second reason is we choose not to charge is , we much prefer a true voluntary system where if you are in a position to DONATE to FFF and you feel our work has helped you or saved you money we have a DONATION system in place where you can donate the amount YOU choose , we belive this is a truly fair system .

All donations are much appreciated and go towards allowing us to provide more information to produce and shared with all Australians !!!
